Services shows off its stuff at Info Fair

By Mrs. Mary M. Rall
3rd Services Marketing

The chance to get your passport to everything Services offers has arrived at the Information Fair which will be held Thursday from 5-8 p.m. at the Susitna Club.

This event is open to the base community and is an ideal opportunity for those new to the base and who would like to get a closer look at what Services has to offer throughout the year.

The Information Fair will also feature a free buffet meal for incoming personnel and their families who present their invitation at the door. Others attending without an invitation who are interested in the buffet may indulge for $11.95 with the member's first discount, $14.95 at the regular price, and $5.95 for youth ages 6-12. Children 5 and under are free.

Representatives from the large variety of Services facilities will be present to answer any questions you may have and introduce you to the many features available for everyone, from the single Airman to the youngest family member.

Among the many facilities providing information are the Polar Bowl, the Child Development Centers, the Youth and Teen centers, the Arctic Oasis Community Center, Eagleglen Golf Course, Hillberg Ski Area, the Susitna and Kashim clubs, the Skills Development Center and the Information, Tickets and Travel Office.

Participants will have an opportunity to explore the many booths, enjoy the event's tempting buffet, listen to the music of the Band of the Pacific, and they will also have a chance to enter to win some gifts.

Following the buffet, event participants will receive a passport to have stamped at the event's various booths. The completed passport will be the participant's entry to win a variety of prizes.

In addition to special items offered from Services facilities, two $50 gift certificates for use at any Services facility throughout the base will be awarded to those attending.

The Information Fair will also feature sponsors from the local community. Among those attending are Trust Financial Group, ASC, and USAA. (No federal endorsement of sponsors is intended.)

The fair is the first of many to be offered throughout the year. The next event will be offered Jan. 6 and then offered monthly.
